Sponsored Scholarships

New Jersey School Of Music (NJSM) Scholarship Statement: The rules and policies of the NJSM scholarship program have been created in an effort to both; provide awarded parties with the opportunity to follow their dream/desire to study music and to insure that all those thoughtful and kind enough to contribute to helping these dreams come true have their expectations met and their dollars used wisely.

All New Jersey School of Music Scholarships are subject to NJSM terms and conditions.

- (*) Awardees must read and agree to uphold all scholarship policy articles listed in the scholarship program.
- (*) Teachers and scheduling (i.e. start date) are subject to availability.
- (*) Those scholarship students wishing to continue their studies must declare a spot on the schedule and register for continuing lessons within four weeks of the end of the scholarship term or forfeit their current spot on the schedule thus becoming subject to teacher and scheduling availabilities.
- (*) Students are responsible for purchasing all books, materials and instruments or instrument rentals for study while in the scholarship program.
- (*) All scholarship lessons are ½ hour in length and are taken once a week through the duration of the scholarship term.
- (*) The NJSM reserves the right to change or add policies, rules, terms and conditions of any and all scholarships at any time.

Available scholarships:

- 1] Merit Scholarship
- 2] Helping Hands Scholarship
- 3] Music Introduction Scholarship

- 1] Merit Scholarship: To an individual that shows exemplary potential in their given area of musical study.
Merit scholarships are available to students pursuing any style/discipline of music and open to students of: banjo, guitar, bass, piano, voice, flute, piccolo, drums, trombone, trumpet, French horn, saxophone, oboe, clarinet, violin, viola and cello.
- 2 openings each year (one Fall and one Winter/Spring).
 - The Award(s): A 16 week full lesson scholarship. This scholarship covers all lesson fees for a period of 16 weeks. It is not transferable to any other individual or party. The scholarship covers lesson costs only and is not applicable toward any other musical materials or fees.
Winter/Spring term scholarship: The 16 week Winter/Spring Merit Scholarship starts the first week of February 2010 and extends to the week before Memorial Day.
Fall term scholarship: The 16 Week Fall Merit Scholarship starts the first week of September 2010 and extends to the week before the end of year break. (Dec. 24th – Jan 1st 2011)
 - Eligibility Requirements: Applicants for the Merit Scholarship must be between ages of 14 to 17 years old, must have been taking music lessons previously for a period of not less than three years, and have the intention of continued musical study. Applicants must have access to the instrument that they are studying from the beginning of the scholarship term. Applicants must live within reasonable commuting distance of the NJSM branch they will be attending.
 - Application information and procedures: Fully completed Merit Scholarship Applications must be received at the New Jersey Of Music (located at: 10 Union Street, Medford, NJ. 08055) by the application deadline stated in this section. Merit Scholarship applicants must be available for an audition during the audition period as stated in this section. Failing to meet application deadlines and audition scheduling will result in disqualification of consideration for the Merit Scholarship award.

Application deadline for Winter/Spring Merit Scholarship is January 8th, 2010. Auditions for Winter/Spring Merit Scholarship will be held the week of Jan 18th, 2010. Application deadline for Fall Merit Scholarship is June 8th, 2010. Auditions for Fall Merit Scholarship will be held the last week of June, 2010.

- Audition Requirements for the Merit Scholarship: 1] All major and minor scales played two octaves up and down (hands together for pianists), 2] All major and minor triad arpeggios played two octaves up and down (hands together for pianists), 3] One performance piece of classical music of least 2 minutes in length but not longer than 5 minutes. This piece can be chosen from any period in what is commonly referred to as standard classical repertoire (Bach to Bartok), 4] One performance piece in your choice of genre of least 2 minutes in length but not longer than 5 minutes. This performance piece must be a written piece of music. Please no improvisation. You can study improvisation with an awarded scholarship but not use improvisation as part of the audition process. 5] At least one of the two performance pieces must be memorized. Both may be played from memory if so desired.
- Responsibilities: (1) It is the responsibility of the Merit Scholarship student to attend all scholarship lessons. There will be no make up of missed lessons for Merit Scholarships except in cases of severe illness, or weather and these will be at the discretion of the scholarship administrator. Multiple missed lesson may result in the loss of scholarship support for your lessons. Lessons may still be available for continued study but the lessons will no longer be paid for by the scholarship program. Not showing up for lessons and not calling before hand to let the teacher and school know that you will not be there (no call no show) is grounds for immediate expulsion from the scholarship program. (2) It is the responsibility of the Merit Scholarship student to be prepared for all lessons. This includes adequate and appropriate practice between lessons as well as bringing all books and applicable materials to each lesson. Participation is very important. Students who do not actively participate in their lessons will lose the support of the scholarship fund for their lessons. Lessons will still be available for continued study but lessons will no longer be paid for by the scholarship fund. In these cases the student will be responsible for all lesson fees. (3) It is the responsibility of the Merit Scholarship student to perform in 3 NJSM sponsored events i.e. NJSM local tour, master class, fundraiser, community service, recital, etc. and 1 non- NJSM sponsored event during the scholarship term. Possibilities for non-NJSM sponsored events include but are not limited to: retirement home performance, hospital events, township sponsored events, etc. NJSM must be notified of all non-NJSM performances.

2] Helping Hand Scholarship- A continuing education scholarship to an individual that exhibits exemplary potential and desire to work within the community to bring music to those in need.
